

Endless Ombre Cowl

A striped infinity cowl, worked on the diagonal, joined with a 3-needle bind off. It can be made into a scarf by casting on and off in normal manner, and by working first 2 rows and last 2 rows in garter st.

designed for Jade Sapphire by Lisa Buccellato

MATERIALS

One Jade Sapphire Mini OmbreKit (6 mini skeins in colors 1 - 6)
One pair size 7 needles
One double pointed size 7 needle for 3-needle bind off
Scrap yarn of similar weight for provisional cast on Crochet hook size 4.5mm for provisional cast on

GAUGE

5 sts = 1" over St st using size 7 needle or size to obtain gauge

STRIPE PATTERN

Row 1 (RS) K2, p1, m1, knit to last 4 sts, p2tog, k2.

Row 2 P2, k1, purl to last 3 sts, k1, p2.

COWL

With scrap yarn, chain 48 for provisional cast on. Join Color 4 and pick up 44 st purlwise in bumps.

Begin stripes

Join color 1 and work Rows 1 and 2. With Color 4 work Rows 1 and 2.

Continue in Stripe Pattern alternating colors 4 and 1.

Join color 1 and work Rows 1 and 2, then with color 4 work rows 1 and 2.

As these are used up, replace color 4 with 5, color 1 with 2.

Continue with colors 5 and 2. As these are used up, replace color 5 with 6, color 2 with 3.

Continue with colors 6 and 3. When these colors are almost used up, end with color 3 and Row 1, leaving enough to bind off.

Carefully release provisional cast-on and place sts on double pointed needle.

With RS held tog, work 3-needle bind off from WS with color 3.
